elcome to the Teiravon Library

My name is Don Francesco and I have been appointed lead librarian of this venerable house. I am now in the process of collecting information and documentation spread all over different people across Teiravon, structuring it and compiling it here under for everyone. And I can already tell you this is going to be a serious undertaking. We shall see, where this leads to…

If you happen to have useful information to provide, please let me know.

Yours sincerely,

Don Francesco

Lead Librarian of Teiravon
